Safety tips

- View the After Dark safety videos at www.perth.wa.gov.au/living-community/community-safety-and-emergency-management/city-after-dark.
- Don't get loaded before you arrive. Drinking in the street or in parks is illegal. Drunk patrons aren't allowed into pubs and clubs.
- Carry a mobile phone, money and ID. Acceptable ID is a current passport, Australian drivers licence or a government authorities ID with photo.
- Select a well lit route and areas with CCTV. Don't walk alone in dark quiet areas.
- CCTV cameras are installed in the central city, Northbridge, and all train stations. For your safety they are monitored 24 hours a day.
- Look after your mates and travel with a friend or person you trust.
- Arrange a meeting or pick up place and time.
- If you leave by yourself, tell someone where you're going and how you'll get there.
- Check yourself. If you are too drunk or aggressive you may not be able to take a bus, train or taxi.

Travel home safely after a night out

Plan how you will get home before you start. Use public transport so you don't drink and drive.

- Get step-by-step transit directions (with maps) www.transperth.wa.gov.au or www.google.com/intl/en/landing/transit/#mdy for your web browser or on your mobile phone.
- Catch the free Blue CAT around town, until 12.15am on Friday and 11.50pm on Saturday nights.
- Transperth will drop passengers off after dark, anywhere it is safe along the bus route.
- Know when the last bus or train goes and be there before it leaves without you.
- High frequency bus 950 operates via the city, between Morley and Nedlands, until after mid night.
- Transperth train services run every 30 minutes until midnight. Currently, trains depart at 1am and 2.15am on Friday and Saturday night. Trains between 12.30am and 3am are FREE.
- Check service times for public holidays or special events as they may change.

Transperth InfoLine: 13 62 13 (Mon–Thurs until 12.30am; Fri & Sat until 2am; Sun until 12am)
